Most City Facilities to be Closed Nov. 24 in Observance of Thanksgiving

Many City Offices will be Closed or Working with Reduced Staff Nov. 25

SAN DIEGO – All City of San Diego offices will be closed Thursday, Nov. 24, in observance of Thanksgiving Day. Many of the City's administrative offices and other facilities also will remain closed Friday, Nov. 25, to allow employees to participate in a voluntary, unpaid, work-furlough program. Public safety operations such as fire suppression, lifeguard services, and police patrol services will be fully staffed on both days; police investigative services will operate with reduced staffs both days. Offices open Friday may be operating with reduced staffing. Citizens are encouraged to contact offices before the holiday to transact business or inquire if specific services will be available.

- The City Clerk's Office will be open Friday, but the City Treasurer's Cashiering and Business Tax services will be closed.
- All Community Service Centers will be closed Thursday and Friday.
- City recreation centers will be closed Thanksgiving Day but open Friday.
- All pools will be closed on Thanksgiving Day. Pools will operate on their regular schedules the day after Thanksgiving, November 25, 2005.
- Torrey Pines, Balboa and Mission Bay municipal golf courses will be open both Thanksgiving Day and Friday.
- The City's Development Services Department will be closed Friday. Customers anticipating a need for construction plan review or permits or a review of a property's construction records or zoning from Nov. 23 - Dec. 1 are urged to complete the process before Nov. 23rd. Applicants can still obtain no-plan permits online (www.sandiego.gov).
- Parking meter restrictions will not be enforced Thanksgiving Day, but enforcement will resume on Friday. Parking Management offices will be open Friday and staffed for in-person parking citation payments and processing of impounded vehicle matters.
- Water bill payments can be made at the Water Department, 600 B St., 11th floor, or at various independent payment centers throughout the City. For locations of these centers, call 619-515-3500.
- For information about the operating hours of the City's lakes, call 619-465-3474.
